Apartment

Benahavis

Project of villa apartments from two to four bedrooms, with an area of 103 to 224 square meters. It is located in Benahavis, west of Marbella, and has fantastic facilities such as a gym, swimming pools for adults and children, two tennis courts and two paddle courts and playgrounds.

The project is designed by the prestigious architecture firm Villarroel-Torrico, which has 40 years of experience in the successful development of resorts and residential communities with sophistication, technological rationality and modern architecture. The residential complex will incorporate a modern design together with an Andalusian touch and a quality finish.

The promotion will be implemented in two phases. Consequently, the deadline for the project is less than three years. Construction of Phase...
